If you earn an F grade in any of the courses of the current semester, you will be required to repeat the same in the next semester if the same is offered then and your course assignment above will change accordingly.

You may also consider any other course(s) for the semester, but the same must be within the program course sequence. If you decide to do so, this Course Advisement must be formally amended through the undersigned. If you like to propose any changes in the allocation for you, you must apply to the undersigned. Otherwise, this allocation will be regarded as final.

Any variations without formal authorization will be ignored in recording courses in transcript, awarding scholarships, recognitions, and other academic matters. In case of confusion please contact the undersigned immediately.
